FOREWORD

Even as the radiant colors of the prism must be reflected in sharing the olory of the spectrum, so must a college year book reflect the daily life and activities of the students who make a college their home. It is our desire that this volume of The Spectrum will give to the class of 1930 a memory in years to come of that most delight ful part of life - college days! And since always activities are as material stretched upon some kind of framswork, there must of necessity always be that frame of unifying and strengthening qualities. We believe that the arch with its satisfymo completeness and curving beauty best embodies This idea; and for this reason the staff of 1930 has chosen the arch as the symbol for this hock.

ADMINISTRATION

A Message to the Students

As President of the Georgia State College for Women, I greet you and wish for you all happiness and success in your college life. Since the College was established in 1889, it has been unique in its ideals and standards. The purpose of its leaders has always been to provide for the young women of Georgia a type of education that would give them practical training for teaching, homemaking, and other fields of interest for women, and at the same time would develop cultured women and useful citizens ready to take their places in the community life as individuals of well-rounded character.

We have striven to carry out this purpose, while the students pursued the course of study which forms their academic training in college, by holding ever before them the ideal of growth of personality through radiant health, pleasing, attractive manners, a fine college spirit of co-operation, democracy, and service, serious application to studies, and high standards of scholarship.

When a white ray of light passes through a prism, it is bent twice from its course in the same direction and the colors are separated to form a spectrum. I trust that after you complete your education here, others may see each of you as a white light viewed through the prism of college experience as a spectrum composed of the separate qualities of health, charm, culture, character, friendship, scholarship, and service, radiant as a white light and beautiful to the eyes as the rainbow tints.

Senior Class Song

We're Seniors and used to the ways of G. S. C. As all can see
And we're willing to do our part,
While we're here with all our heart.
To colors and class we'll be true
For G. S. C. we'll dare and do.

CHORUS

Senior—dear Senior Class,
All others we must surpass.
Our College we praise in a thousand ways
We say it all in just one sweet phrase.
G. S. C., so fair and you will ever hold dear,
We love you—love you dear G. S. C.
And your standards we will hold high,
Oh yes we love our dear Senior Class
With a love that will never die.

Junior Class Song

We are just a Junior Class at our dear G. S. C. Yet we'll try to do our best
To serve her faithfully.
To our school the school of schools
We pledge our loyalty
And we'll ever to that pledge be true.

CHORUS

G. S. C. stands for the things the world seeks for,
The things our hearts adore,
Purity, honor and joy.
To her standards high we will ever strive
To reach with pride
And by all our rules abide.
G. S. C. the school of schools forevermore to be.
All Georgia looks to thee with hearts of pride and loyalty
Loyalty.
Through our lives our Alma Mater you will be
A guide to lead us on
Till our ships we've steered from home.

"I am come that they might have life and might have it more abundantly."

PURPOSE

We, the members of the Young Women's Christian Association of the Georgia State College for Women unite in the desire

To realize rich and creative life through a growing knowledge of God.

We determine to have a part in making this life possible for all people.

In this task we seek to understand Jesus and to follow Him.

More than eleven hundred students and faculty members on our campus pledged themselves in September to the purpose and motto of the Young Women's Christian Association. A campus is a community within itself, in which there exist the same or corresponding situations to those which may be found in any community. The Y. W. C. A. strives not merely to carry out a series of activities but through study, work, helpful association, and through the pooling of experiences to aid students in working through new and baffling experiences and to find the best way to live and the best means of growth. Our religion is what we live plus what we believe. Hence, Y. W. C. A. members come to regard life and religion as one and to search earnestly for growth in Christ-like character. Christ's way of life was not an individualistic way; and so we come to realize our responsibility toward other people in every sphere and of every nationality. Realizing this, as an organization, the members of G. S. C. W. Young Women's Association are members of the National Student Council, the World Y. W. C. A., and the World Christian Student Federation. Nothing, it seems, could be more challenging than that G. S. C. should have eleven hundred and sixty-two members who are a part of this great, fine body of students of every land seeking Christ's way of life and His Kingdom of love. We are unified in the efforts that we are making toward world peace, inter-racial understanding, and Christian principles in industry.

Carinthian has as its purpose the sponsoring of clear

The literary magazine, known as the Corinthian, has as its purpose the sponsoring of creative writing. It publishes only original work contributed either by students on the campus or by alumnae of the college,

Four years ago, Hazel Hogan of Canton, Georgia, receiving her inspiration from the Emory Phoenix, conceived the idea of having this type of publication at the Georgia State College for Women. Miss Hogan became the first editor-in-chief. Since that time there have been four others, Virginia McMichael of Buena Vista, Harlowe Thompson of Comer, Gladys McMichael of Buena Vista, and Dorcas Rucker of Alpharetta.

The Corinthian is sponsored by the Literary Guild. The greater part of its success, as well as the success of the organization of which it is a project, is due to Miss Winifred

Crowell, Faculty Advisor.

Freshman Class Song

There's a college in 'ole Georgia, And its name is G. S. C. There's a class that's in that college, It's the class of '33. It's the class that has a spirit That nowhere can be surpassed. Now we'll boost our Alma Mater And uphold the Freshman class And uphold the Freshman class.

CHORUS

We're the Freshman class in college And as proud as we can be. We will stand by the green and white And boost, 'ole G. S. C. We will ever do thee honor And will always loyal be And we'll ne'er forget the school we love Our own dear G. S. C.

ATHLETICS

Field Day

Girls! More girls! Hundreds of girls! Excited, restless, full of pent up energy. With colors flying and spirits high they are making their way to the athletic field, where already the bleachers are crowded with spectators.

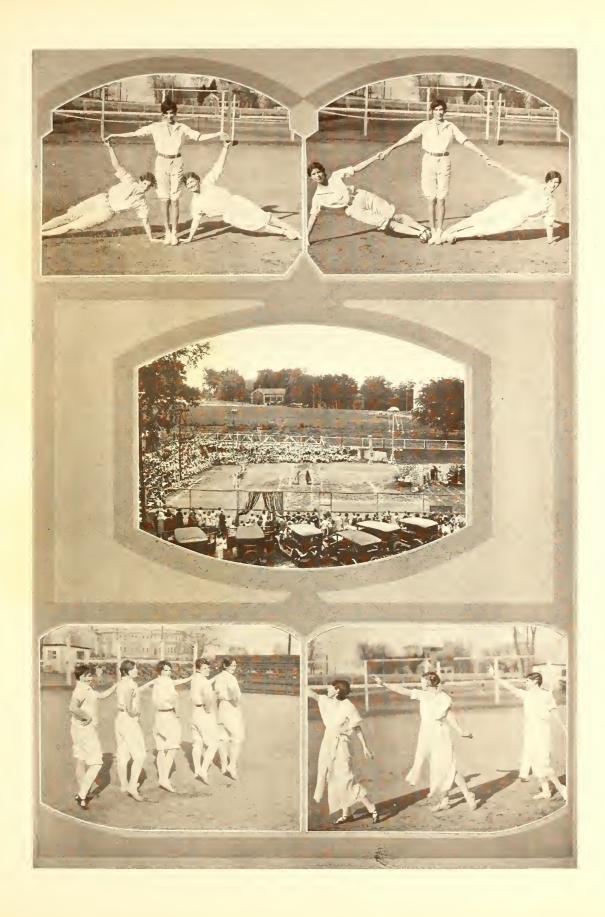

The field is a riot of color. Streamers of red and black, green and white, purple and lavender, orange and black are flying in the breeze. At each corner of the field there is reared a giant umbrella decked in the colors of the class for which it stands.

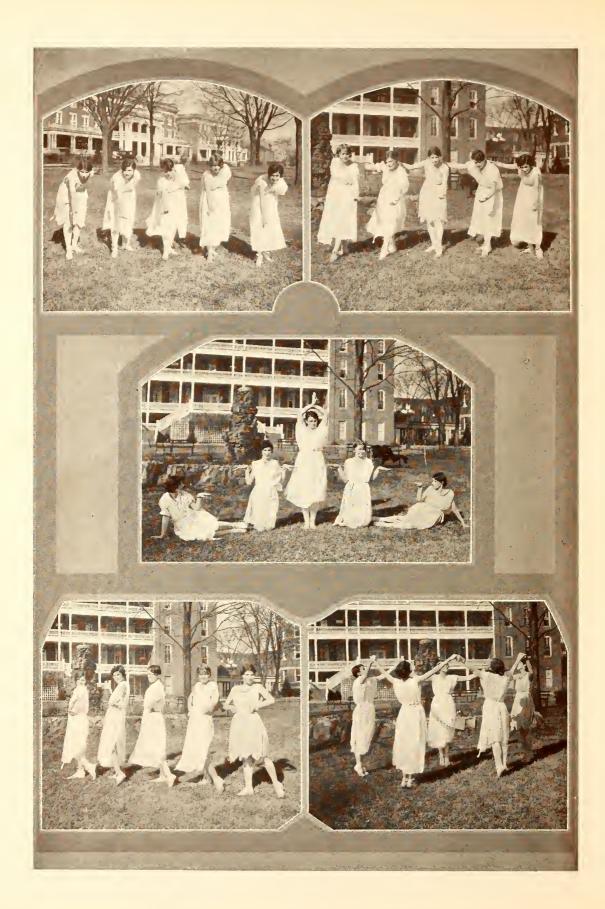

For a moment there is silence, then with a grand flourish the classes one at a time make their appearance on the field. They are greeted by bursts of cheers from the bleachers. The very air seems to swell with the great volume of the sound.

Now things begin to happen so fast that it fairly makes our neck ache as we crane this way and that in order not to miss seeing anything. The events come in rapid succession. There are pantomimes, dances, games, character dances, stunts, races, and contests of all kinds. On another part of the field there are throwing and jumping contests.

After the action is over, there are more songs and yells. Then with bated breath, everyone is silent while the scores are read and the winner is announced.

With shrieks and shouts the tired but happy victors bear their umbrella to the front campus where with much ceremony and amid cheering they erect it as the emblem of their success. So ends field day.

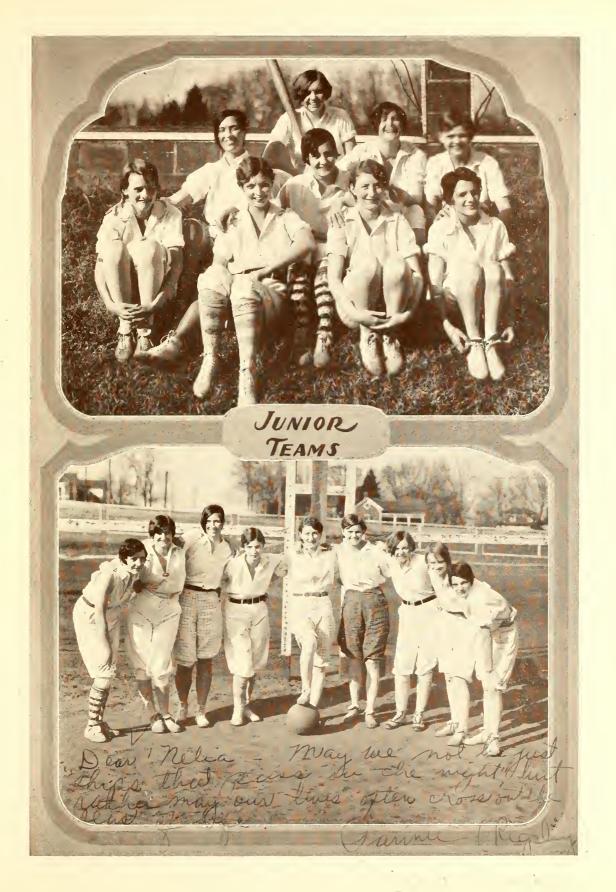

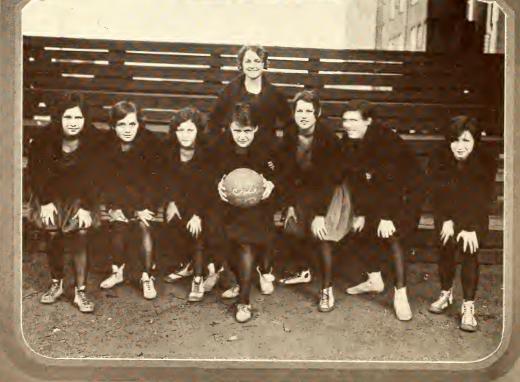

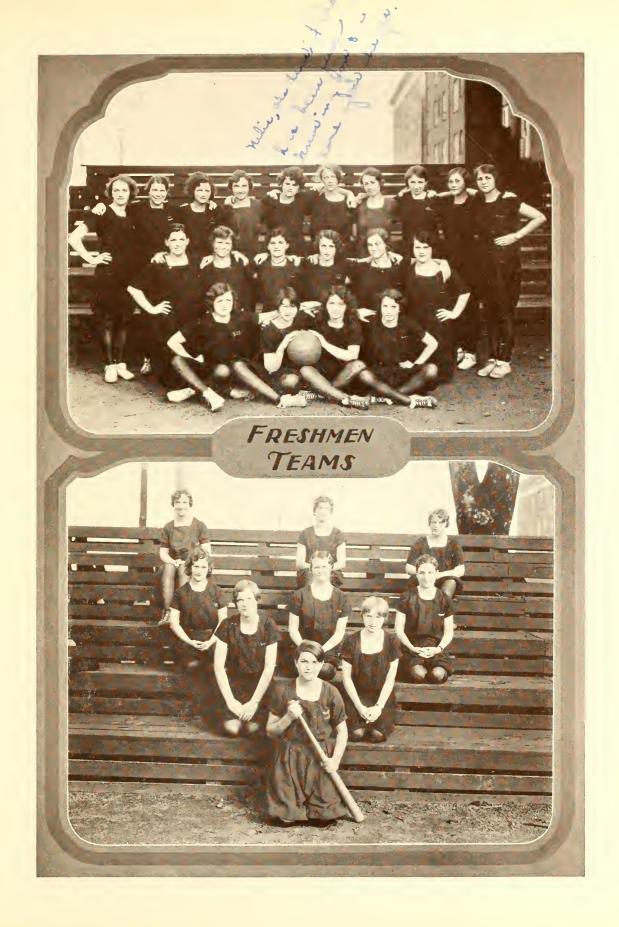

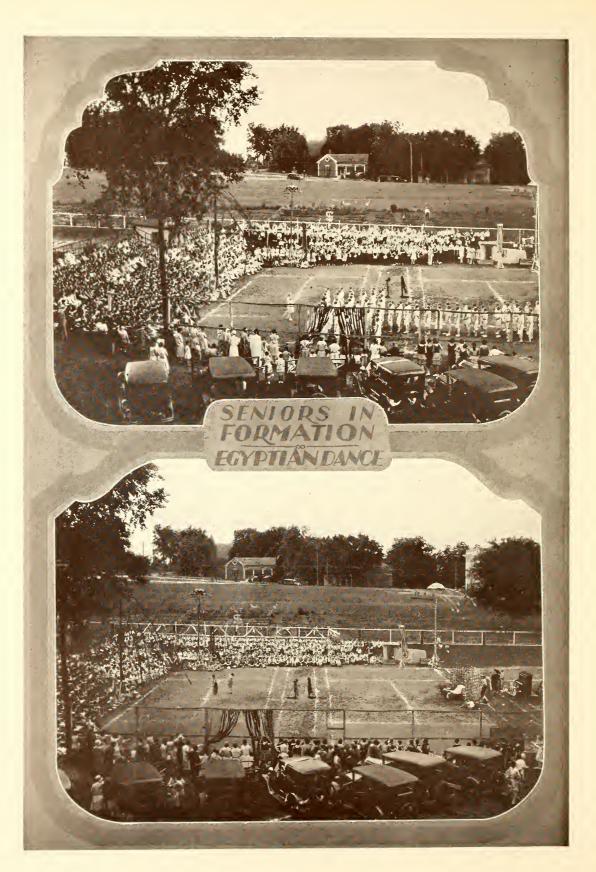

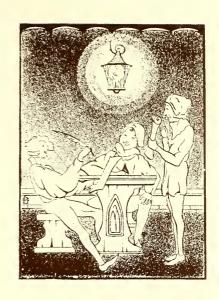

CLUBS

Alumnae Association

OFFICERS

The Alumnae Association of the Georgia State College for Women claims for its members all graduates, Normal and Degree, and all fomer students. Upon graduation, students automatically become allied with the Association which endeavors to keep the influences of our Alma Mater ever in evidence. Being a member of the Alumnae Association keeps us ever a part of our Alma Mater, although we may drift to all parts of the globe.

The aim of the Association is to keep forever burning, the beautiful fire of loyalty to our Alma Mater, to spread her influence even to those who do not call G. S. C. W. their college home, and to strive diligently for her growth.

Its purpose is three-fold. It seeks to render effective contacts between Alumnae and the college, to perpetuate memories of College associations and to advance her strength and prosperity. Looking toward this final accomplishment the slogan adopted by the association is "A G. S. C. W. Club in every county in Georgia."

The students in English One Classes organized this club in October with Dr. Hunter as faculty advisor. The purpose of the club is to cultivate a worthy appreciation of language, to stimulate, by careful study of the masters, a desire to write and speak well. The club programs, which have dealt with the fundamentals as well as the five points of English, have been instructive and interesting. The club members are striving to become better acquainted with their mother tongue through the medium of this organization.

On April 28, 1928, all those girls majoring or minoring in Health at the Georgia State College for Women met for the purpose of organizing a Health Club on our campus, with Mrs. H. S. Wootten as our advisor. The club has a three-fold aim: to embody and radiate health as far as possible on our campus; through wholesome recreation to cultivate courtesy, helpfulness, and joyousness, which should be every individual's inheritance; and to secure a workable scientific basis of the fundamentals in health education. The motto of the club is "Health: certified by years of experience."

The History Club, one of the most progressive and helpful clubs on the campus, has many aims for which it is striving. Its main purposes are to stimulate an appreciation of the true value of History and to create a social attitude among its members.

Under the guidance of Dr. Amanda Johnson, this club has accomplished many worth-while things. Some of the plays it has sponsored are "Miss Molly," "Stop Thief," "Cupid at Vassar," "Arrival of Kitty," "When Jane Takes a Hand." The proceeds of these plays have been put to various uses: for the Colonnade, for the Y. W. C. A., and for the Georgia History Museum.

Probably the biggest project that the History Club has attempted is the present one, that of making the Georgia History Museum. Its purpose is to preserve old manuscripts, newspapers, letters, and any other articles of value relating to Georgia History.

The Senior Glee Club was organized in September, 1929, with Mrs. R. E. Long as director and Mildred O'Neal, Beatrice Howard and Irma Vaughan as officers.

The aims of the club are to create a higher appreciation for music, for writers and composers and to get real happiness from singing.

Plans are being made for programs to be given in chapel and for an operetta to be given during Music Week.

During the year of 1923-1924 there was organized on our campus a Mathematics club which has since borne the name of Lambda Psi Omega. The object of this club is four-fold: first, to stimulate an interest in mathematics among the students of the college; second, to broaden our knowledge in the field of mathematics; third, to help develop the mathematics department of the college; and fourth, to promote social activity among the mathematics students.

PI Gamma Mu, the National Social Science Honor Society, granted a charter to G. S. C. W. January 30th, 1929, and thus came into existence Beta Chapter.

The purpose of Pi Gamma Mu is the inculcation of the ideals of scholarship, scientific attitude and method and social service, in the study of all social problems.

Pi Gamma Mu is not an ordinary honor society. It has no rational ritual and no secret features of any sort. Its name is simple and modest, merely the initials of the Greek words meaning "Student of Social Science."

The program of Pi Gamma Mu is two-fold. First it aims to inculcate the crientific attitude and recommendations.

Science."

The program of Pi Gamma Mu is two-fold. First it aims to inculcate the scientific attitude toward social questions. Second, the aim is to keep alive this scientific social interest and to intensify it in the minds of all members who have graduated.

Pi Gamma Mu has two sorts of members; chapter members who are college seniors, alumni, and instructors, men and women who have attained to a high degree of scholarship and have distinguished themselves in the study of social science; and second members-at-large. Social science is understood in its broadest sense to include: sociology anthopology economics, commerce, law, political science, history, geography, philosophy, psychology, education and biology.
